This balance was further segmented into $374M in pension-related funds (Employee Withholdings and Pay-Go Charges), $142M in Central Government non-TSA funds (lottery-related funds and other funds held and administered by central government agencies), and $64M held TSA Sweep Accounts that collect income and completely pass through to TSA on a daily basis (includes General Collections Posts, Agency Collections Posts, and SUT). As further set forth in the Bank Account Balance Report, processes are currently in place to continue evaluating the accounts, including analyzing the cash inflows and outflows and reviewing legal restrictions relative to funds deposited into the bank accounts.*

Introduction

- Enclosed is the weekly Treasury Single Account ("TSA") cash flow report, supporting schedules and Liquidity Plan to actual variance analysis.
- TSA is the Commonwealth's main operational bank account (concentration account) in which a majority of receipts from Governmental funds are deposited and from which most expenses are disbursed.
- Beginning April 2016, TSA receipts are deposited in a commercial bank account rather than the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico ("GDB").
- Receipts in the TSA include tax collections (including revenues assigned to certain public corporations and pledged for the payment of their debt service), charges for services, intergovernmental collections (such as reimbursements from Federal assistance grants), the proceeds of short and long-term debt issuances held in custody by the Secretary of Treasury for the benefit of the Government fiduciary funds, and other receipts. Only a portion of the revenues received by the TSA is included in the annual General Fund budget presented to the Puerto Rico Legislative Assembly for approval. Other revenues are separately assigned by law to certain agencies or public corporations but still flow through the TSA.
- Disbursements from the TSA include payroll and related costs, vendor and operational disbursements (including those reimbursed by Federal assistance grants and funded from Special Revenue Funds), welfare expenditures, capital outlays, debt service payments, required budgetary formulas and appropriation payments, pass-through payments of pledged revenues to certain public corporations, tax refunds, payments of current pension benefits and other disbursements.
- Federal funds related to disaster relief for hurricanes Irma and Maria are deposited in a separate bank account overseen by the Government Authorized Representative ("GAR"), and transferred to the TSA only after admissible disbursements (per approved Project Worksheets) have been made. These inflows to the TSA will be captured on the Federal Funds Receipts (Schedule C); outflows will be captured on the Vendor Payments (Schedule E).
- Data for TSA inflows/outflows is reported from various systems within the Department of Treasury of Puerto Rico ("DTPR"):
 - Cash Flow Actual Results - Source for the actual results is the TSA Cash Flow.*
 - Schedule A - Collections - Source for collections information is the DTPR collections system.*
 - Schedule B - Agency Collections - Source for the agency collections is DTPR.*
 - Schedule C - Federal Fund Receipts - Source for the federal funds receipts is DTPR.*
 - Schedule D - Net Payroll - Source for net payroll information is the DTPR Rhum Payroll system.*
 - Schedule E - Vendor Payments - The source for vendor payments is the Bank checks paid report and a report from the DTPR PRIFAS system.*
 - Schedule F - Other Legislative Appropriations - Source for the other legislative appropriations is DTPR.*
 - Schedule G - Central Government - Partial Inventory of Known Short Term Obligations - Sources are DTPR.*
- Data limitations and commentary:
 - The government has focused on the seven schedules above for which access to reliable, timely, and detailed data is available to support these items. The government continues to work with DTPR and other parties to access additional reliable data that would help us provide detail in the future for other line items in the Cash Flow.*

FY 2018 TSA Forecast Key Assumptions

- The FY 2018 Treasury Single Account cash flow forecast Liquidity Plan was prepared at the beginning of the fiscal year based on the approved FY 2018 Budget, was projected monthly through June 2018, and is used as the benchmark against which weekly results and variances are measured. As a result of material economic and operational changes stemming from Hurricanes Irma and Maria, DTPR is in the process of developing a reforecast of TSA cash flows to year-end. Until then, the original TSA forecast will continue to serve as the measure for weekly cash flow variances.
- Forecast collections and disbursements through the General Fund and Federal Fund are consistent with the approved FY 2018 Budget, with the exception of payroll outlays which were forecast based on run-rate cash disbursement trends, and budget reserves which are non-cash and do not impact the TSA direct cash flows.
- TSA General Fund inflows are "gross" (i.e. include accrued Tax Refunds in 2018) and therefore higher than presented in the approved FY 2018 Budget, which considers General Fund revenues net of current year tax refunds. Repayment of deferred tax refunds (from CY 2016 and prior) total $292mm; reserve for current year tax refunds (excluding garnishments) total $456mm.
- Payroll outlays are based on FY 2017 run-rate disbursements, less savings measures, representing a $298mm favorable adjustment to the approved FY 2018 Budget for the full fiscal year. Payroll is presented inclusive of segregated employee contributions ($349M for the year). Payroll is disbursed through the TSA on a bi-weekly basis, approximately on the 15th and 30th of each month.
- Pensions reflect the implementation of the pay-as-you-go model in FY 2018. Retirement system inflows represent deposits from municipalities and corporations net of administrative expenses. Figures also include ERS / TRS / JRS asset sales ($390M), which occurred in July 2017.
- The Liquidity Plan assumes collections and outlays of Federal Funds are equal in FY 2018 (zero net cash impact), excluding potential timing impact.
- Clawback funds set aside prior to June 2016 (approx. $146mm held at BPPR accounts and $144mm held at GDB) are considered restricted cash and therefore excluded from the projected cash balance.
- The Liquidity Plan assumes $592mm of Reconciliation Adjustment as per the approved FY 2018 Budget and March 13 certified Fiscal Plan, which is projected separately from supplier payments and distributed evenly over 12 months. No further provision has been made for potential contingent liabilities against the government.
- The Liquidity Plan assumes that beginning November 2017, COFINA SUT collections flow to the General Fund and are available to the TSA for operational purposes, totaling approx. $316mm in incremental collections in the forecast. To date these funds have flowed, and may continue to flow, to the COFINA bank account (BNY Mellon), which will create a weekly variance from November through January.

Executive Summary - TSA Cash Flow Actual Results for the Week Ended February 9, 2018

Key Figures as of 2/9/2018
$1.60bn	($29M)	($19M)	($197M)	($193M)
Bank Cash Position	Weekly Cash Flow	Weekly Variance ^(a)	YTD Net Cash Flow	YTD Net Cash Flow Variance ^(a)

Relevant Matter:

PREPA Loan A Federal Court Ruling on February 19, 2018 approved a loan request in the amount of $300M to PREPA from the TSA (Central Government).

Notable variances ^(a) for the week ended February 9, 2018:

-$69M	Inflow - Federal Fund Receipts	(Temporary) Variance is partially offset by differences in federally funded vendor disbursements, federal appropriations to ASES, and disbursements for the Nutritional Assistance Program.
+$48M	Outflow - ASES Appropriation	(Temporary) Variance is mainly due to the timing of the receipt of federal funds, as typically federal funds received for the Medicaid Program are disbursed to ASES during the week they are received. However, only $8M in federal funds were received for the Medicaid Program during the week ended 2/9 compared to the $48M projected Medicaid Program receipt and subsequent appropriation to ASES. Variance is expected to reverse later this month when additional Medicaid Program funds are received.

Notable YTD variances ^(a) as of February 9, 2018:

-$602M	Inflow - Federal Fund Receipts	(Temporary) As of January 31, 2018, approximately 80% of the YTD variance can be explained by (1) lower-than-projected federally funded vendor disbursements (65% of total variance), the Department of Education, Department of Health, and the Administration for Child Care and Development constitute the large majority of this variance and the Department of Treasury is currently assessing the reasons for variances at these agencies, (2) lower ASES appropriations related to the Medicaid Program (10% of total variance), presumed to be mostly due to timing and will reverse throughout the course of the year, and (3) less disbursements for the Nutritional Assistance Program (5% of total variance), also presumed to be mostly due to timing and will reverse throughout the course of the year. At the agency level, variance due to a lag between the disbursement and subsequent reimbursement of federal funds was also considered as part of this analysis and determined to be nominal as of January 31, 2018. The remaining 20% variance is currently being assessed to determine its drivers and whether it is permanent or temporary in nature.
-$400M	Inflow - Sales & Use Tax	(Permanent) YTD permanent negative variance is -$316M due to COFINA SUT collections flowing to the COFINA bank account. Remaining YTD variance is most likely permanent, due to lost revenues from Hurricane María's impact on economic activity in addition to a temporary sales tax exemption on prepared foods and items sold by small and medium merchants.
-$205M	Inflow - General Collections	(Permanent) Principally due to the negative impacts caused by Hurricane María. The largest YTD collections variances are -$145M in individual income tax collections, -$166M in Act 154 collections, and +$106M in Petroleum & Gas Tax collections.
+$78M	Outflow - Tax Refunds	(Temporary) Mainly due to $27M in Senior Citizen tax refunds, originally forecast to be refunded in November and December, now projected to be refunded in March 2018. Remaining +$51M variance is also timing related.
+$345M	Outflow - Reconciliation Adj.	(Potentially Permanent) The Reconciliation Adjustment is budgeted at the agency level, but its use is not expected to be required.
+$438M	Outflow - Vendor Disbursements	(Partially Temporary) Vendor disbursements in December and January were in line with the Liquidity Plan and substantially regained pre-hurricane disbursement run rate ($273M per month). Reforecast to year-end for vendor disbursements is currently being developed to determine how much of the remaining YTD variance is permanent vs. temporary.

Key Cash Flow Risks to Liquidity Plan through June 30, 2018:

Sales & Use Tax	The Liquidity Plan includes -$316M in collections that will not be received into the TSA, as these funds have flowed to the COFINA bank account (BNY Mellon), and will not be available to the TSA for operational purposes. Additionally, lower SUT collections due to the impact of the Hurricanes on collections are expected, and the revised SUT forecast for the remainder of the year is less than Liquidity Plan.
Corporate Income Tax	Though Corporate Income Tax collections have been fairly resistant to the negative effects of Hurricane María to date (1% YTD variance ^(a)), the full impact of Hurricane María may not be completely realized yet. By fiscal year-end, deterioration in Corporate Income Tax collections relative to the Liquidity Plan is expected due to the lagged impact of the Hurricane on this revenue stream.
Act 154 Collections	Act 154 collections have been negatively impacted due to the effects of Hurricane María and a majority of the variance is assumed to be permanent in nature. Further deterioration in Act 154 Collections is expected throughout 3Q and 4Q and revised Act 154 collections forecast for the remainder of the year is less than Liquidity Plan.
FEMA Spend	FEMA cost share may impact working capital due to the timing of the spend / reimbursement cycle. Though FEMA cost share will be funded by General Fund reserves that were excluded from the Liquidity Plan Forecast ($307M), the lag between spend and reimbursement may create temporary cash variances in the TSA. YTD variance between disaster related spend ($21M) and federal reimbursement ($15M) to the TSA is -$6M.
PREPA/PRASA	A Federal Court Ruling on February 19, 2018 approved a loan request in the amount of $300M to PREPA from the TSA. However, the TSA may be required to provide additional funding later this fiscal year to continue to support PREPA liquidity needs. PRASA might also potentially require funds to be transferred from the TSA to fund their ongoing liquidity needs, which would represent a risk against the Liquidity Plan that is currently being assessed.
Title III Spend & Municipal Recovery Fund	TSA funds may be required to cover non-budgeted Title III spend throughout 3Q and 4Q (which may approximate -$200M) and to set up The Municipal Recovery Fund (potentially -$100M).

Key Cash Flow Opportunities to Liquidity Plan through June 30, 2018:

Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018	The Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018 (The Act) passed by Congress on 2/9 includes provisions for additional disaster relief funding for Puerto Rico that will translate into positive cash flows against the Liquidity Plan. Additionally, The Act provides for federal funds to support Puerto Rico's public health care costs for the next two years. Total cash flow impact for the remainder of FY2018 will be assessed in subsequent weeks.
Petroleum & Gas Taxes	Strong Petroleum & Gas tax collections could continue throughout Q3 and Q4, providing additional positive variance in collections. YTD collections variance for this revenue stream is +$108M, largely driven by unplanned increases in demand for oil to run power generators. YTD variance has partially offset other revenues that were negatively affected due to the Hurricanes.
Reconciliation Adjustment	Currently the Reconciliation Adjustment is being deferred until later this fiscal year. However, its use is not expected to be required, which would allow for a cash opportunity against the Liquidity Plan of +$592M.

10		($81,788)	-	-	-	$534,110	$615,898	($81,788)	5 Per the General Fund rum tax waterfall calculation, the General Fund receives 100% of rum tax collections until a threshold of $117M in rum export tariff collections relating to FY18 exports is reached. This threshold was met in December 2017 due to better than expected 1Q and 2Q Rum tax collections (the Liquidity Plan assumes the $117M threshold would be reached in March 2018). Rum manufacturers are now receiving new rum export tariff collections until they receive 46% of the total YTD rum tax. At that point, the TSA will receive 54% of rum export tariff collections, and the rum manufacturers 46%, for the remainder of the year. YTD favorable variance in rum tax collections will reverse throughout 3Q where forecast rum tax collections in the TSA will continue to be distributed to rum manufacturers, as per the Rum Tax Waterfall.

28		23,982	-	-	-	(77,738)	(101,720)	23,982	32 Weekly variance is timing related and partially offsets the previous week's timing variance. Cumulatively, December and January vendor disbursements were within 3% of Liquidity Plan projections and total February vendor disbursements are projected to be in line with Liquidity Plan.
29		(8,327)	-	-	-	(49,050)	(40,723)	(8,327)	33 Weekly variance will reverse next week as Other Legislative Appropriations originally projected for the week ended 2/16 were executed throughout the week ended 2/9.

Timing of refunds corresponds with adjusted filing dates due to the impact of Hurricane Maria. Remaining variance is due to timing.

Footnotes:

- (a) The numbers presented represent a bottom-up build of invoices at the government agency level, which should not be considered to be indicative of total Accounts Payable for the central government. This is due to issues surrounding invoice entry that has hindered the timely cadence of recording invoices, which was made worse by the impact of the Hurricanes.
- (b) Refers to invoices/vouchers approved for payment by the agencies but checks not released. Data is sourced from Puerto Rico Department of Treasury.
- (c) Represents additional invoices identified outside of DTPR main system. Data is sourced from BDO, who compiles this information for the 19 agencies included in its scope of work.
- (d) Pre-recorded AP is related to other agencies out of scope for BDO that independently enter invoices into a Live AP module prior to invoice payment approval. The data is sourced from the agencies themselves, compiled by BDO, and validated to ensure there is no overlap with other AP categories.
